

IMMIGRATION RELIEF FOR UKRAINIAN REFUGEES: WHAT THE UNITED STATES IS CURRENTLY OFFERING

Posted on April 2, 2022 by Cyrus Mehta

I conducted a one hour presentation on immigration relief for Ukrainians under the aegis of the Practising Law Institute on March 29, 2022, and spoke about options for Ukrainians in the US as well as for those who have fled Ukraine or considering fleeing as a result of the unprovoked Russian invasion. This presentation should assist attorneys who wish to represent Ukrainians impacted by the invasion. Below is the PowerPoint presentation with useful links. Since there are new developments regarding Ukraine every day, the information is current as of March 29, 2022.
